

American Legion Riders Post 155 3rd Annual Mystery Poker Run

The American Legion Riders Post 155 Crystal River held their 3rd Annual Mystery Poker Run on Saturday, March 28. The event began at Post 155 in Crystal River where breakfast was served, and concluded at Willards Restaurant and Lounge in Morriston where all riders enjoyed a delicious bar-b-q dinner. The event raised $2500 which will benefit veterans served by Hospice of Citrus County and Hospice of the Nature Coast. Pictured in front of fellow American Legion members and Mystery Poker Run participants at Post 155 in Crystal River are (from left) Post Commander Jim Woodman, Legion Riders Director Fred Bernquist, Hospice of Citrus County/Hospice of the Nature Coast Chief Executive Officer Anthony Palumbo, HOCC/HONC Chief Operations Officer Bonnie Saylor, Mystery Poker Run Coordinator Mike Dufort and Legion Riders Vice Director Jeff Jenkins.

Debbie Brauer (left) bus driver for Citrus County Schools, is served breakfast by Hospice of Citrus County Education Coordinator Sandra Benko RN (right). Breakfast was served at the start of the American Legion Post #155 3rd Annual Mystery Poker Run held on Saturday, March 28 which began in Crystal River and concluded at Willard's Restaurant and Lounge in Morriston. Approximately 150 riders attended the event. Proceeds from the event went to benefit veterans served at Hospice of Citrus County's Hospice House located in Lecanto. The Mystery Poker Run offered raffles, vendors, music, door prizes, pulled pork dinner and prizes for best and second best poker hand.

American Legion Rider George Corp (left) shares a laugh with Hospice of Citrus County Development Manager Linda Baker prior to the start of the 3rd Annual American Legion Riders Post 155 Mystery Poker Run held on Saturday, March 28. The event went to benefit veterans served by Hospice of Citrus County and Hospice of the Nature Coast.

Hospice of Citrus County Chief Operations Officer Bonnie Saylor (right) Hospice of Citrus County Public Relations Manager Joseph Foster (center) and American Legion Rider/Patriot Guard Rider Moe LaBelle, M.F., SSgt USMC Retired, served pulled pork dinners to participants of the American Legion Riders Post #155 3rd Annual Mystery Poker Run held on Saturday, March 28 (not pictured Hospice of Citrus County Education Manager Dee Peters). The event began in Crystal River and concluded at Willard's Restaurant and Lounge in Morriston. Approximately 150 riders attended the event. Proceeds from the event went to benefit veterans served by Hospice of Citrus County and Hospice of the Nature Coast.