

Hospice of the Nature Coast participated in the Azalea Festival parade on Saturday, March 5, 2011.

Volunteers Dottie Rountree and Vikki the Clown had a grand time riding the flowery decorated HONC parade float. (photo 011)

Volunteers took time to stop and pose for a quick photo with Volunteer Program Manager, Lynda Harvey before the parade got started. (photo 007)