

November 8, 2011

HOSPICE PROCLAMATIONS at INTERLACHEN TOWN COUNCIL

INTERLACHEN--On Tuesday, November 8, The Interlachen Town Council proclaimed November as National Hospice Month in Interlachen and encouraged all people to learn more about options of care and share their wishes with family, loved ones, and their healthcare professionals. Mayor John D. Lyles noted the work that Hospice of the Nature Coast has accomplished in the Interlachen community.

Mayor Lyles proclaimed Thursday, November 17, 2011 as Children's Grief Awareness Day. Children's Grief Awareness Day is a National Day set aside to remember children who have died and acknowledge children who are grieving. The Interlachen Town Council acknowledged Hospice of the Nature Coast for the support of grieving children.

Hospice of the Nature Coast is a program of Hospice of Citrus County, licensed in 1985. For additional information regarding services provided by the Hospice of the Nature Coast call (386) 530.4600. Visit us on the web at www.hospiceofthenaturecoast.org.

-30-

CUTLINE FOR PHOTO: The Interlachen Town Council proclaimed Thursday November 17, 2011 as Children's Grief Awareness Day and November 2011 to be National Hospice and Palliative Care Month. Receiving the Proclamations from John D. Lyles, Mayor of Interlachen are Rodney Phillips, Public Relations Program Manager and Lynda Harvey, Volunteer Manager of Hospice of the Nature Coast.