

NURSES COMPLETE TRAINING AT NEW EDUCATION CENTER

HOMOSASSA--Licensed nurses from several home health agencies were the first group to complete training at Citrus County's new Wings Education Center located in Homosassa. The nurses completed certified training to provide continuous care for patients and families served by Hospice of Citrus County.

The Wings Education Center is part of a newly constructed triple-use complex, located at 8471 W Periwinkle Lane in Homosassa, just east of US 19. This new location is home for the Community Education Center, the West Citrus Team that provides services to patients and families living west of Hwy 491 in Citrus County, and the new Homosassa Too Thrift and Gift Shoppe including Herry's Café.

Other Hospice of Citrus County offices are located in Inverness, Lecanto, Beverly Hills and Citrus Memorial Hospital. Thrift & Gift Shoppes are located in in Beverly Hills, Inverness and Homosassa.

Educational classes, training and grief support programs for adults and children will be offered at the new Wings Education Center in Homosassa. For more information, visit www.hospiceofcitruscounty.org or call 866-642-0962.

CUTLINE 0787 – Nurses receiving certification at the new Wings Education Center include: Nicole Baker, Rosalind Clermont, Brenda Boyett, Barbara Dail, Michelle Miller, Stacy Tollison, Andrea McClendon, Dawn Wingo, Denise Newman, Jeanette Harvey, Gina Ingalls, Randi Strobel, Curtis Lee, Scott Lockhart, Alyssa Parker, Linda West, Charles Ashe, Jennifer Brown, Angela Hardin, Betty Evans, Courtenay C. Escoffery, Veronica Boleyn, Ethel Brinson, Kathleen Houston, Evelestine Black and Gloria McKinnon.

CUTLINE 2-24-2011periwinkle - The new Wings Education Center is part of a newly constructed triple-use complex, located at 8471 W Periwinkle Lane in Homosassa, just east of US 19. This new location is home for the Community Education Center, the West Citrus Team and Homosassa Too Thrift and Gift Shoppe including Herry's Café.