Hospice of the Nature Coast Second Annual “Rockin in Interlachen” Fall Festival, Rocks Interlachen

INTERLACHEN – Hospice of the Nature Coast’s Interlachen Thrift & Gift Shoppe presented the second annual “Rockin in Interlachen” Fall Festival on Saturday, October 22 from 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. The event was held at the Thrift Shoppe located at 1114 Hwy 20, #202, Interlachen. Proceeds from the event benefited Hospice of the Nature Coast's Herry's Kids Pediatric Services division.

The Mayor of Interlachen the honorable John Lyles proclaimed October 22, 2011 Hospice of the Nature Coast Fall Festival Day in the town of Interlachen. The Interlachen High School ROTC Color Guard presented the colors while the ROTC Drill Team followed with a precise demonstration.

The event featured live music, food, games, prizes and fun for all in attendance. Children enjoyed a bounce house and inflatable games. The Interlachen Fire Department displayed their Fire Engine. The staff from Hope FM provided live radio updates to area listeners. Shoppers at the Thrift and Gift Shoppe entered drawings for gift baskets. Everyone who attended the event got a chance to spin the Hospice of the Nature Coast prize wheel. Rotarians from Sunrise Rotary labored over the grill to provide hamburgers and hotdogs to hungry attendees.
