

OPEN HOUSE FOR HOSPICE OF THE NATURE COAST WINGS CENTER FOR EDUCATION IN PALATKA

PALATKA—An open house for the new Hospice of the Nature Coast Wings Center for Education was held Thursday, November 5 at 6721 Crill Ave in Palatka.

Pictured is Hospice of the Nature Coast Chief Executive Officer Anthony Palumbo (right) and Hospice of the Nature Coast Chief Operations Officer Bonnie Saylor (left) as they welcome Karl Flagg, Mayor of the City of Palatka, to the open house.

The Hospice of the Nature Coast Wings Grief Services Team offers support groups and individual counseling to anyone in the community who has experienced a loss.

Hospice of the Nature Coast is a program of the Hospice of Citrus County, a non profit, charitable organization, licensed 1985, which has earned the Joint Commission Gold Seal of Approval. For information about hospice services, call 866-463-1385 or visit www.hospiceofthenaturecoast.org