

HOSPICE OF CITRUS COUNTY VOLUNTEERS RECOGNIZED AT ANNUAL BANQUET

HERNANDO--Hospice of Citrus County recognized some very special individuals at their annual Volunteer Recognition Banquets held on Friday, April 4 and Thursday, April 18 at Citrus Hills Golf & Country Club.

Hospice of Citrus County Volunteer Coordinator Cookie Hines (left) recognizes and congratulates Volunteer Pat Meunch with a Special Services Clerical Support “Herry The Heron Stick Out Your Neck” Award presented at the Hospice of Citrus County Volunteer Recognition Banquet held on Thursday, April 18. Pat Meunch is legally blind and assists hospice patients and families by volunteering at the Hospice of Citrus County Inverness Clinical Office located on Line Ave.
